DOUBLE HEADER

Goes to Morganfield.—Both Were Holly Contested From Start To Finish.

Morganfield came to Marion last week, and took both games from our boys, by a combination of good luck and good playing on their part. It was disappointing to Marion fans to drop both these games, but we don't suppose we feel any worse than they did when we gave them the same dose over there. At least they were good games, hard fought and worth the money to see them; both of them anybody's game until the last put-out. Two such games as these were, are seldom seen in towns this size.

Morganfield certainly demonstrated that they have a good team, that can play good ball on occasions; their playing in these two games was 200 per cent better than in the former games with Marion. Their playing was good enough to win nine games out of ten; we can partly console ourselves by the thought that even with that, they had to have all the luck to win—and luck will not win every game.

Whatever good opinion Marion has of Morganfield's good ball playing, we cannot say anything for their fairness and sportmanship. The exhibition that the Morganfield management and fans gave Friday, in the squabble over the umpire, was a disgrace to the team and Morganfield—nothing less. Their attitude was unsportsmanlike, unfair and of the kind that brings discredit upon the sport of baseball more than anything else. Briefly stated, it was this, and if they can get anything else to describe their attitude, we would like to know what it is: when Marion went to Morganfield to play, they selected the umpire, for both games, and Marion accepted their choice without argument or question. When they came here to play, they not only refused to accept our choice, but refused to choose for themselves any umpire out of Marion, and threatened to call off the games unless they could put in an umpire of their own choice. A compromise was finally made, solely on Marion's part because the management did not wish to disappoint the large crowd gathered to see the game. According to every custom of amateur games, Marion was entitled to select the umpire; the man selected was one whom we challenge any team who has played under his umpiring to bring the least charge of unfair dealing. But because Morganfield was determined to win at all costs, she argued and blustered until Marion, rather disgustedly, gave in. We do not believe that the fair minded people of even Morganfield would have defended the actions of their management in this case; we do not see how any fair minded person could. Marion is not even thinking of claiming that we were beaten out of the game by the umpire; it is true that there was one close decision, largely instrumental in the result, but we were satisfied with the work of Mr. Wallace, and have no complaint to make against him. But unless Morganfield wants to get the reputation of trying to win, by foul means if fair will not succeed, she had better cut out such actions as were displayed here Friday.

THE GAMES.

Friday's game was largely one of luck. Marion out hit Morganfield more than two to one, but Morganfield's drives came with men on bases, and Marion did not. A little bad base running in the third inning lost two scores for Marion, when two were on bases and none out, both being caught trying to steal. Morganfield scored in the third, when Laughlan reached first on an error, stole second, and came home on Holycross hit; again in the ninth Burroughs reached first on an error, stole second, and scored on G. Taylor's single. Marion's run, the only earned run of the game, came when Taylor and Cummins doubled to the right field fence in succession, in the fourth. Cooperrider out pitched Holycross at all points, as the summary will show.

The second game, on Saturday, with Stevens pitching for Marion and Griese for Morganfield, was won by the latter, 4 to 2. Marion lost because Morganfield bunched nearly all their hits in the fourth inning, scoring all their runs then, and all of them were earned. Another factor was the phenomenal work of the visiting outfield. Hall in center and Burroughs in right had nine put-outs between them. Only three of these were on flies, the others being line drives, which in nine cases out of ten, would all have gone for hits. Four of their catches were on the "circus" order, and two of them were as fine as any game ever produces. Perhaps the fans who saw Saturday's game did not realize it, but they saw finer out field work than most big league teams could produce; it is safe to say that there has been no other game played in the country this year where four such catches were made were pulled off by Hall and Burroughs in this game. Each of them cut off what seemed certain hits, and at least two of the outs lost two runs each to Marion. If all of Morganfield's team played that sort of ball all the time (which they don't), nothing could beat them, short of Pittsburgh, at least. The visitors in field work was very inferior to their outfield, six errors being credited to them, which produced both of Marion's runs. Marion played an errorless game, and had Morganfield's playing all been like that of their outfield, Marion would have scored at least five runs. Goldamer, Holycross and Quirey each scored two hits. Outside of the fourth inning, Stevens pitched his usual winning game; Griese was saved from a barnburning only by the spectacular work of the outfield behind him; he was hit hard, but not a drive could Marion get past that outfield.

Cooperrider pitched for Madisonville against Morganfield Monday, at Madisonville, and Morganfield was beaten, 3 to 1, largely by his excellent work. Holycross pitched for Morganfield, and was again clearly outclassed.

Morganfield's claim to the championship of Western Kentucky, (and they even said all of Kentucky), was a little premature, as the result of their game against Madisonville showed. Morganfield will please remember that so far they have an even break with Marion and with Madisonville, and have not met Princeton. They are some distance from that championship yet. And three games out the last ten played with Marion is a somewhat small percentage of wins to make such a fuss over.

Marion may be in the bushes, but she was able to send a pitcher to Madisonville to down the mighty and chesty Morganfield team.

No wonder Morganfield does not love a school tournament. They like nothing in which they can not win, by some means or other.

The funny bone of the editor of the Morganfield Sun is tickled. Read carefully these few comments:

"Many of the people from Morganfield came home with cricks in their necks caused from gazing up at the skyscrapers. The trees down there are very high."

Not so, Charlie. It was the rat-gut whisky they brought with them. The wonder is they did not see snakes and have jim-jams instead of cricks.

"Who used his arm? Cooperrider. Who used his head? Holycross. Consequently, who shed tears? Cooperrider."

If Cooperrider shed any tears, he shed them in dire pity for the drunken crowd from Morganfield that paraded the streets of Marion all night, using language unprintable. The crowd failed to respect the elegant men and ladies who come with them and who were witnesses to the utter disregard for Marion and citizens.

To show Cooperrider's superiority over the Morganfield team, he defeated them at Madisonville Monday by a score of 3 to 1.

Morganfield went to Madisonville Monday with their blustering roosters and attempted to run over everybody rough shod, as they did at Marion, but a stop was soon to see the hand-writing on the wall. Cooperrider was the "good Daniel" that was able to read them.

Stock Law To Be Voted On.

Crittenden county court, Regular term July 12, 1909.
Present and presiding, W. A. Blackburn, Judge. D. A. Lowery et al. For vote on stock law.

It appearing to the satisfaction of the Court that a petition signed by D. A. Lowery and more than one hundred other legal voters in Crittenden county, Kentucky, was filed in Crittenden county court by said D. A. Lowery at regular June term 1909, asking a submission to the voters of said county at the next regular election in said county the question whether or not cattle and all kinds of stock shall be allowed to run at large in said county, said petitioners having deposited with the county court of said county the sum of Five Dollars to pay the expense of said election and said sum being sufficient in the judgment of said court to meet the expense of said election, and it further appearing to the court that said petition has been duly acted upon by the Fiscal court of said county at its regular April term 1909, permitting the vote to be taken in said county upon said question and same to apply to the county as a whole and to take the sense of the voters of the entire county upon said question.

It is therefore ordered by the court that the officers of the election be and they are hereby directed to open a poll in each voting place in said county at the next regular election to be held in November 1909, for the purpose of ascertaining the will of the qualified voters of Crittenden county, Kentucky, upon the question whether or not cattle and all kinds of stock shall be allowed to run at large in said county.

A copy attested.

Sees Mother Grow Young.

"It would be hard to overstate the wonderful change in my mother since she began to use Electric Bitters," writes Mrs. W. L. Gilpatrick, of Danforth, Me. "Although past 70 she seems ready to be growing young again. She suffered untold misery from dyspepsia for 20 years. At last she could neither eat, drink nor sleep. Doctors gave her up and all remedies failed till Electric Bitters worked such wonders for her health." They invigorate all vital organs, cure Liver and Kidney troubles, induce sleep, impart strength and appetite. Only 50 cents at Haynes & Taylor and Jas. H. Orme's drug stores.

Scientists have found in a case of Switzerland bones of men, who lived 100,000 years ago, when life was a constant danger from wild beasts. To-day the danger, as shown by W. Brown, of Alexander, Me., is from deadly disease. "If it had not been for Dr. King's New Discovery which cured me, I could not have lived," he writes: "suffering as I did from a severe lung trouble and 'coughed' To cure Sore Throat, Colds, eliminate Coughs, and prevent Pneumonia, its the best medicine on earth. 50c and $1.00. ## You May Need It

Ask your doctor about the wisdom of your keeping Ayer's Cherry Pectoral in the house, ready for colds, coughs, croup, bronchitis. If he says it's all right, then get a bottle of it at once. Why not show a little foresight in such matters? Early treatment, early cure.

We publish our formulas. We banish alcohol from our medicines. We urge you to control your drug.

Many a boy is called dull and stupid, when the whole trouble is due to a lax liver. We firmly believe your own doctor will tell you that an occasional dose of Ayer's Pills will do such a great deal of good. They keep the system clean.
